Eisenhower Tree May Die The Eisenhower Pine Tree, chopped nearly halfway through by vandals over the weekend, "probably will not survive," according to expert tree-men, but there may be no definite indications of the tree's condition until next spring, "when is will bud if alive." Dr. J. Walter Coleman. National Park superintendent, said that a tree expert examined the "patient" Tuesday, tramined the injured bank, and applied preservatives. But the tree is still on the critical He stated, according to Dr. Coleman, "that a tree as large as that, planted as late as August, has only a 50-50 chance of living anyway. And a shock such as it has received reduces its chances

The tree was planted by the World Wars Tank Corps Asso. August 28 to mark the spot on the Battlefield where President Eisenhower had his neadquarters, when he commanded Camp Colt during World War I

The tree was "butchered" by vandals in a wave of destruction that swept the park over the weekend. The act has aroused the indignation of the public.

The second flared up Wednesday evening, in a different barn. Francis Staub, son of the owner, was nearby, saw the blaze, and summoned the fire company. It was extinguished before much damage was done. It is this fire that the suspect is said to have admitted.

Bonneauville Fire Chief James Orndorff discovered a broken jug in the barn, with traces of gasoline, which led him to suspect arson. County Fire Marshal John Murren agreed, and State Police were

The younger Staub also agreed that the second fire had been set deliberately, from the way it had flared up and from the black smoke which came from it. In addition, he said, someone had loosened the Fire House fuses that evening which controlled the lights and sirens.

Eisenhower Tree May Die

The Eisenhower Pine Tree, chopped nearly halfway through by vandals over the weekend, "probably will not survive," according to expert tree-men, but there may be no definite indications of the tree's condition until next spring, "when it will bud if alive."

Dr. J. Walter Coleman, National Park superintendent, said that a tree expert examined the "patient" Tuesday, trimmed the injured bark, and applied preservatives. But the tree is still "on the critical He stated, according to Dr. Coleman, "that a tree as large as that, planted as late as August, has only a 50-50 chance of living NORRISTOWN, Pa. (P)-Anthony J. Ferst, 46, will be charged with murder in the death of his wife, Bessie, mother of 12 children, Montgomery County First Asst. Dist. Atty. Bernard Di Joseph announced last night.

The 46-year-old woman was originally believed to have died of injuries suffered in a fall down the stairs of her nearby Conshohocken home. Police said that Ferst told them his wife had fallen down the stairs but that two of his children, Joy, 11, and Sarah, 9, have since reported that their mother had not been upstairs last Monday night, that they heard her screaming that evening, and had found her body in the pantry.

Death was attributed to a fractured skull, and other injuries.

THE ONLY ONE"

Of all the girls I ever knew . . . you are the very best . . . because you have the qualities . . . that stand above the rest . . your faith is of the lasting kind

. . . that never goes astray . . . because of you I gain the strength . . . to conquer all dismay . . . you ill my life with tenderness . . . with soft and blissful charm . . . that mellows to fulfillment as . . . we journey arm in arm . . . your beauty comes from deep ins.de . . . not merely from your face . . .

I know beyond all other things no one could take your place . . . when skies are dark your sincere smile . . . makes everything seem bright . . oh yes, my darling, I am sure . . . our love is real and right . . . and so it is I'll cling to you . . . until this life is done . . . and then throughout eternmy . . . you'll be the only one.

TOP BASEBALL MEN DIFFER ON

By FRITZ HOWELL

NEW YORK (A)-A couple of Ohio's top baseball men couldn't get together today on a favorite to win the 1954 world series.

Warren Giles of Cincinnati, president of the National League, opined that New York's Giants would take it all. Al Lopez, Cleveland manager, said his Indians had it wrapped up.

Giles took a look at the 18-10 odds in favor of the Indians, and the fact that only 17 of 54 writers picked the Giants, then warned: "Someone's going to lose some money if they bet against the Giants at those odds. No series is that one-sided.

Avila's New Reason

But Lopez, leading with his ace, 23-game winner Bob Lemon, appeared confident the Tribe would get away on the right foot today. "And if we win the first one, they'll never catch us," the eventempered senor predicted.

Bobby Avila, the American League's leading hitter and snappy second sacker, offered a new reason for a Cleveland victory.

"Three of my brothers and my cousin came up from Mexico for the series." he said. "I would be Leading off with Maglie was Stevens (American) third base; ashamed if we lost while my broth-

When One Word worth 1,000 Pictures

When you're away from home, a call to a loved one can give your spirits a lift as nothing else can. Yet this investment in peace of mind costs surprisingly little. With federal excise taxes on long distance service reduced from 25% to 10%, long distance telephone costs are at their lowest point in years. This is especially so after 6 PM and on Sundays. Truly it costs so little yet means so much so keep in touch by long distance telephone.

Who Are Clients?

"Since he (Wood) has brought up the issue of boss contractors, I wish to ask him: What contractors did he or does he represent before the various state agencies? How many fees has he collected?

"What is the value of the land damage claims he has filed against the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as attorney for property owners affected by the eastern extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike, especially in Montgomery County?" Leader's reference to "boss contractors" was to a repeated charge by Wood that the Democratic candidate is dominated by "boss contractors" and the "Pittsburgh gang 41 of Democrats." "He (Wood) dared me the other day to; bare my record in business and politics and I gave him the facts," said Leader. "Now he should do the same."
